In respect for the performers and those audience members around you, please turn all beepers, cell phones and watches to their silent mode. Thank you.

Executive director, Moshe Bukshpan, has created a distinctly Arizonan music festival – The Red Rocks Music Festival. Founded in 2002 this year's festival will bring string orchestra, chamber music, and master classes to Tempe, Prescott, and Sedona, Arizona. World-class performers will present works by J.S. Bach, L. Boccherini, G. F. Telemann, F. Mendelssohn, A. Webern, and A. Dvorak.

Tonight's performers are: Magdalena Martinic-Jercic, associate concertmaster Phoenix Symphony; David Ehrlich, former first violinist with the Audubon String Quartet; Katie McLin, ASU violin professor, Nancy Buck, ASU viola professor; Annie Center, assistant principal viola Phoenix Symphony; Peter Rosato, principal viola Phoenix Symphony; Ohad Bar-David, cello Philadelphia Orchestra; Thomas Landschoot, ASU cello professor; and Jan Simiz, assistant principal cello, Phoenix Symphony.
