

Lyric Book of Songs

and Silver Linings

by Melissa Modifer

Hazel Eyes

When I wake up in the middle of the night by your side
I know that I have found love
And I'll get to look into your eyes as soon as the day comes
And I feel like the luckiest girl in the whole world
With you by side, from zero to ten till the end
It's just me and my best friend
I know you like the back of my silly little hand, oh
And that's the little things, but they're the best things
And we see eye to eye on everything under the sun
And when we argue, that's when I love you...

In the morning light as the sunrise shines through the blinds
And shimmers in your hazel eyes
Feels like I'm dreaming, believing, and I'm mesmerized
It's true what you do to me now that I'm free
I'll fly with you, I'll fall with you
Singing... I love you
All of you

It's the way you smile makes me stop and stare for a while It's something in the way you move
I hear your music, I do, and I dance to your groove
And we, like the peanut butter and jelly of love, so sweet
You stick to me
Singing... I love you
All of you

Something's Coming

Why does it hard to believe things are going right
Where is that feeling that says I'll be satisfied
It's like something's missing in my heart deep down inside
But I don't know who what when how where or why
For years I have been on my own and I'm proud of that I even like being alone and being independent
Taking my time no one telling me what comes next Still there's someone or something that's coming but hasn't yet

"And so I sing, oh, whoa
And I dream, oh, whoa
And I know love is a reason to sing
And so I sing, oh, whoa
And I dream, oh, whoa
And I know something is coming to me
If I just believe

I've always had patience that flows like a waterfall
When I get knocked down I get back up or you will see me crawl
I've had my heart broken a time or two, scars and all
But I wouldn't trade one single scar on my heart at all
I've always been the girl who dreamed she would find "the one"
But as I get older I learn dreams can come undone
But that doesn't mean I have given up of or I haven't won
Maybe it just means a new dream has begun

Undefined

It's the way that the rain hits the pavement
The melting of the snow
It's the sky and the sunshine
The double-wide rainbow
It's the light in your eyes that lights up the night
It's the center eye of a storm so wide
It's the reason why we always try
To search for something more in this ride of a life

I feel it all around me, feel it deep within me
But there is no definition
For the thing that keeps us in connection in this big old world
There are no words in .
There are no words in heaven

It's the smile of a child running free and wild
The color of the moon
It's the moments we cherish
The memories of me and you
It's the silent way we all portray
The sadness in our hearts so brave
It's the freedom we all have to say
That there's nothing else but love that's here to stay

Maybe Someday

It's only a matter of time before someone sees you
And looks you deep in the eyes the way that I want to It's something in the way that you say my name
It takes me away and I don't know what to say
It's not that I'm caught, no my tongue's not to blame
It's my head and my heart, they just don't feel the same
Because I am afraid to risk the truth
Would you even stay if I showed you

If you told me your deepest fears I would sing you to sleep
If you knew how many years I've said "if you and me"
But I'm just a friend and I don't want to lose you
So I'll just pretend and I'll keep on loving you Because you'll never know if I don't try
But then again neither will I

Hear me now
I'm singing to set free my love for you out loud
I want you to know how happy I am
That you're in my life and you're my best friend
No matter the cost this love will not be lost
Nor will it fade away

Maybe someday you'll finally see me
Maybe someday you will finally see
Maybe someday you'll finally see me
Maybe someday you will finally see

Number One Fan

You know I remember the day we met
You sang "Let's Hear It For The Boy" and then I crept you on Facebook
You know I might as well just tell you
That same day, I went home and I checked out all your pictures and your YouTube

I think it's safe to say that we will be best friends
I think you're so damn cool, just look how well we blend
Singing "Freedom" and Dreaming about the Journey
And hoping it won't end
I'll be in the front row for your first Broadway show singing "Viva La Vie Boheme"
After all, I'm your number one fan

Because of you I now eat food that's grown local
With your damn juicing and your Facebook articles about Non-GMO's...
And Monsanto...
It's true I like to eat organic vegetables
And I'm so proud that because of me you choose not to eat so many chemicals

Looking back we've had so many good times, you and I Like last year, on Black Friday when we went to Kohl's and we won all that stuff
And got our picture put online
And do you remember that time in California
You came on late on stage 'cause you were busy pooping in the wings
Hey being constipated for 4 days is like, the worst thing that's ever happened to me

If it makes you feel any better I embarrassed myself when I outed Tommy on stage
What would I ever do without you?
I don't know, do you think you'd be able to go poop?

I'm in denial about when I move away
Fuck you, just stop it right now, I'm gonna cry on stage
Let's pretend that forever we'll be cast together
Playing sisters till the end
I'll be there at your door when we're both in New York singing "Viva La Vie Boheme"
After all, I'm your number one fan

Something tells me we'll be friends forever
And I can see us now when we're all grey and we're still reaching for the stars
So can I because that's what dreamers do
And you've taught me to dream with my heart because yours inspires me to follow my truth
So let me tell you thank you for showing me the way
You don't need to thank me, if it wasn't for you I wouldn't be who I am today

So let's go take this world by storm, you and I
On one condition, we must journey side by side
Singing "Freedom" and Dreaming about the Journey
And hoping it won't end
I'll be in the front row for your first Broadway show singing "Viva La Vie Boheme"
After all, I'm your number one fan

Fall

If I said I need you
And until now I've tried my best to be alone
That every time I see you
I feel like I've come home
They say that you don't know just what you have until you lose it
Well for me I didn't know what my life lacked
Until you walked straight into my life no warning signs
Look up, surprise, with open eyes you take me to the skies

I fall over and fall under
And crash into what feels to me as loud as thunder
Stumble into your smile
Your laughter and your love twist me upside down
And I fall up

I know that I've been distant
The truth is that I've been so scared to let this show
So if you would just listen
There's something you should know
Tonight for the first time is where I finally tie the line Between lonely, happy, independent woman who's survived And the girl who dreamed she'd find the means to reach the biggest dream of all
She needs you in her life

Brave

How did I get here, how did the time fly by so fast
I thought I had time, but time flies by so quickly and becomes the past
This growing up thing, no one warned me
Now I don't know where to go
Which way is home
'Cause I'm alone standing in the crossroads
And though I know I'll never be alone

What if I choose wrong
What if I'm not so strong
What if the ending and the beginning are the same
Does that mean I gave up
All of the things I prayed could maybe be a part of me
Or am I brave

They say taking chances leads to strength more than regret
I guess what happens depends on how well I can take what I get
So I'll be strong and face the unknown
Though I don't know where to go
Which way is home
'Cause I'm alone standing in the crossroads
And though I know I'll never be alone

I cast a line into the shadow of the dawn
I chose the road less traveled trying to make it home

For All Of Ever

It's the way that you look at me
That's says where to go
It's the silence you speak to me
That's never too cold
It's the smile in your heart that I see in the dark
Over my shoulder I know you're not far

Take me home now
I'm ready to fly
Take me home now
Let's go see the world from the sky
'Cause it's never too late to follow your heart
You're never alone because I'm not far

For all of ever you'll have all my heart..

Beauty

I wake up everyday with a smile from inside upon my face and I breathe
Then I thank the world for letting me dream
I look in my own eyes, the reflection of a girl who's not your average size
But I know love comes to those who see where the real beauty lies

I know I'm not perfect, But I know I'm worth it
I love without shame in a world that loves blame
I am so proud of all that I'm made of
And every mistake I have yet to make

"Because it's the scars that tell my story
There's so much more to me than what meets the eye
And if I'm able to bleed, I know that means I'm alive
And I will keep going, though it's hard to climb
Because the best part of life is when you mess up
And I refuse to give up
Each day that I falter I will work a little harder
To believe in myself when there's nobody else to convince me
That I am made of Beauty
I am Beauty

I sit and wonder why every day I used to let pass by is now gone
How could I slumber and sleep through the dawn
Now I stand tall and strong holding my head high in the middle of it all
And I know love comes to those fight for the fairest of all
Now I know that choosing, trying and loosing
Is better than making no choice at all
And I know that living, loving, and giving
Is more than enough to heal the furthest fall
