ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY BANDS

MARCHING - CONCERT - SYMPHONIC

The ASU Sun Devil Bands are divided into three units, MARCHING, CONCERT and SYMPHONIC. During the fall semester, the nationally recognized SUN DEVIL MARCHING BAND, directed by Dr. Robert C. Fleming, meets five days a week from 4:00 until 5:30 PM. This band, numbering 280 members, marches for all home games in the 72,000-seat Sun Devil Stadium. Our "Sun Devil Pride" has made many television appearances on regional, national, and cable TV. The Band also travels to some away games (either as an entire group or in smaller Pep Band groups). Shows feature a mixture of precision drill and pageantry set to the best arrangements of contemporary and classical music. The Marching Band is enhanced by the SUN DEVIL DANCERS and the COLOR GUARD.

The Concert program runs concurrently with the marching program in the fall. The CONCERT BAND, under the direction of Dr. Robert C. Fleming, has a full instrumentation and plays the finest in symphonic literature. It meets for one rehearsal per week in the Fall.

The SYMPHONIC BAND, under the direction of Dr. Richard E. Strange, has two rehearsals per week. This ensemble has appeared for conventions of most major professional music organizations, including the College Band Directors National Association (1975), the Music Educators National Conference (1979 & 1986), the American Society of University Composers (1983), and the American Bandmasters Association (1976). The band played host to a joint meeting of the American Bandmasters Association and the Japanese Band Directors Association in 1980, and hosted the 50th Annual Convention of the American Bandmasters Association in 1984. The SYMPHONIC BAND was the first major ensemble on campus to present a concert in the Sun Dome which was televised live with delayed broadcast by KAET public television.

During the spring semester, the SYMPHONIC and CONCERT BANDS move into a daily rehearsal schedule. Each group features soloists from within the membership of the bands or from the ranks of noted professionals, and uses distinguished guest conductors from around the world. All band rehearsals are open to the public. Please call the band office for rehearsal times.

Concerts are played in world-famous GAMMAGE CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS (also, the Symphonic and Concert Bands play concerts in local high schools).
