

November 3, 1941

Dr. B. H. Willier
Department of Biology
Johns Hopkins University
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Dr. Willier:

Thank you for your recent letter. I have no objection to having my symposium paper published together with the others and I shall do my best to bring the completed manuscript to Dallas. At the moment I am still waiting for the outcome of some of our experiments.

With my best regards to you and your family,

Sincerely yours,

Viktor Hamburger

COPY