Conductors' Biographies

Elizabeth B. Vigil is new to the M.M. program at A.S.U. She holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Southern Colorado and a teaching certificate from the University of Northern Colorado. Before beginning her teaching career, Ms. Vigil served in the U.S. Army. The former theater major performed in and directed several dinner theater productions involving actors from the military community.

Robert J. Campo, Jr. is a Masters of Music student in Choral Education at A.S.U. He completed his Bachelor's Degree of Music in Music Education with a choral emphasis at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, WA. While participating in a choral setting is not new to Robert, this is his premiere conducting experience in a public setting.

Robb Butler comes from Denver, Colorado where he has spent the past 13 years. During that time he has held the positions of Chorus Master of the Denver Opera Company under Maestro Nicholas Laurienti and Associate Conductor of the Denver Concert Chorale. Robb has also been active in church music for many years. While in Denver, Robb was appointed the Director of Choral Music at the Church of the Holy Ghost, the only Roman Catholic Church in the Archdiocese to offer a weekly Latin High Mass. Robb's professional solo career has taken him to the stages of the Sante Fe Opera and the Kent Opera in London, as well as appearances with the Denver Symphony and Opera Colorado. Currently Robb is pursuing a Master of Music Education degree in choral conducting.

Christopher P. Fischer is a candidate for the Master of Music degree in Music Education (Choral Emphasis) at Arizona State University. A native of Canada, Christopher holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance from Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario. He has sung professionally with the Elora Festival Singers, and has several years' experience as a freelance performer, vocal coach/ accompanist, church musician and private music teacher. Currently, Christopher serves as Organist at University Presbyterian Church in Tempe.
