BOYS: Click, clack, hear the clogs dance, let the shawms play fit to burst.

Click, clack, hear the clogs dance, let the pipes ring out.

But how can we have a dance when there are no girls here?

Let's go and look for some girls, there'll be plenty of them, for sure.

Good day, master and mistress, would you let us have your fair daughter there?

FATHER: Daughters were made to raise a family and keep house.

BOYS: But listen, to get married you need some boys.

You didn't do anything different good master and mistress.

FATHER: Go to the devil, the lot of you, and good riddance.

BOYS: Ah! master and mistress, why not all embrace?

FATHER: Click, clack, hear the clogs dance, click, clack, . . .

Viva Tutti arr. Ralph Hunter

They who have no cruelty, Hail to them.

They are lovely, they are beauty.
